Description:

Manuscript text report, with classic writing, apparently original (not copy); the first folio contains text with initial protocol; the body of the document indicates that there are six folios sewn together (possible booklet of three bifolios), in paper support, vertical sense. The initial protocol consists of Chrism or Cross, summarises the general content of the document and indicates who carry out the commission of the mission they relate. The document was generated by the priests Miguel de Eyzaguirre and Carlos Pastoriza, belonging to the Compañía de Jesús; it relates the journey through the towns of Eneno, Quinirí, Nijandares, Metraro, to get an interview with the "inga" (referring to Juan Santos Atahualpa), commissioned by the viceroy Joseph Manso de Velasco. Possibly dated topically in Lima, 13 October 1745. Its state of preservation is regular, with moisture stain on the left side, diluted ink and ink stains; it has a seam on the left side.
